GEN. KELLY-KENNY TO LEAVE ARMY

King's Friend Badly Treated by Tory Government.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The most prominent Irishman in the British army, King Edward's confidential military adviser, Gen. Sir Thomas Kelly-Kenny, is leaving the army, and is being regarded as one of the best of British soldiers, was very severely treated by the late Tory government when it reorganized the war office. He was at that time adjutant general of the army, but was summarily dismissed by War Secretary Arnold-Forster, along with Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, and other eminent soldiers.

Since then many important posts have been offered him, but he has declined them all, in accordance with a resolve he made never to accept another army appointment as long as he lived.

The general is an intimate friend of the King, who seeks his advice on all military questions. During the Boer war he commanded a division of Lord Roberts' army on the march to Pretoria.

PROVIDES WILL FOR PIERCING HEART

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Dread of premature burial caused Howard Gilliat, merchant and financier, who died worth more than $1,300,000, to direct in his will that his heart should be pierced to insure death.

Mr. Gilliat left $100 to a doctor for piercing his heart with "some sharp instrument" to insure death if it had not already taken place.

Among Mr. Gilliat's business activities was the presidency of the London finance committee of the Chicago Great Western railway, and a directorship of the Trust and Mortgage Company of Iowa.

SEPARATION IN PARIS EQUAL TO DIVORCE

PARIS, Feb. 15.—The French chamber has discussed the proposal, already voted by the Senate, to modify article 210 of the civil code relating to divorce. This clause gives the right to change a decree of conjugal separation after three years into divorce on the application of one of the parties.

The court will pronounce that the separation is equal to a divorce, and the party against whom it is pronounced will be mulcted in costs.

ORIGINAL "SPITZ" DOGS.

There was a time when dogs did the most interesting things. They kept the most turning, so it would not burn. "Spitz dogs" they were called, and their descendants are called "spitz" to this day. Spitz dogs were trained to turn the spits on which roasted chickens, beef, ducks, and turkeys. The little fellows did their work well. They were never known to bark or howl or to snarl at a mouse or two from it. As late as 1816 spitz dogs were employed.
